Electro-Poise.
SIMPLE IN CONSTRUCTION,
PERMANENT IN DURATION, EASILY APPLIED, ITS SKILL-FUL USE QUICKLY LEARNED.

The Electro-Poise is an Instrument for the
CURE OF DISEASE
WITHOUT MEDICINE.

BASED ON NEW THEORIES OF THE CAUSE AND CURE OF DISEASE, it deals with the electrical and magnetic conditions of the body and the gases surrounding it in the atmosphere, controlling these conditions at will. It is not electricity.
DISEASE is simply impaired vitality. The Electro-Poise constantly adds to the vitality and only assists nature, in nature's way, to throw off the trouble.

A 40-page book, describing treatment and containing testimonials from all sections, and for the care of all diseases, mailed FREE on application.

Col. O'Ferrall and the Democrat.

Level-headed politicians generally think Col. O'Ferrall very greatly injured his chances for the nomination for the government by his course in the Rockwell case.
While he has, by his attack upon Hill, made new supporters among some of the very enthusiastic Cleveland men, he has offended many good democrats who would have stood by him but for his unfortunate speech. This may all be forgotten in one year, but if O'Ferrall has active opposition for the nomination, the matter will be called up against him. In the remote event of Mr. Cleveland being the next President, O'Ferrall's chances would not be injured by his speech, but should Hill be the next chief magistrate, every fair-minded man must see that the Colonel would be in a very awkward position in asking the democrats of Virginia to nominate him for governor. O'Ferrall's best friends deeply regret that he so far forgot himself as to refer to a great democratic leader as a "fox," especially as that leader is the overwhelming choice of Virginia democrats for the Presidency.—Richmond Correspondent Index-Appel.

Consider how unwise the game of politics may be played, even with an appearance of fairness to the uninitiated or unobserving.
Here is Representative O'Ferrall holding one distinguished New York democrat up to public condemnation because of an interest manifested in another New York democrat, and going out of his way as a congressman to praise a third New York democrat who was not in any manner connected with the affair. The "affair," by the way, was a contested election case in the House, and the man won, right or wrong, who was supported by Mr. O'Ferrall to be favored by Senator Hill. All the presumptions are in favor of the perfect fairness and honesty of the Senator, for he is an eminent public man who, beyond any other, has an unassailable record in such cases. Two years ago, when governor of New York, he urged, with great ability and persistence, that all the contests of the kind in that State should be decided by the judiciary, thus removing all chance of "logrolling" and danger of partisanship, for the judiciary of New York is non-partisan. We submit that Mr. O'Ferrall, unthinkingly, perhaps, or perhaps through an exaggerated enthusiasm for a particular candidate for the Presidency, has given to the country a distinctly and absurdly erroneous idea of another candidate.—Petersburg Index-Appel.

Col. O'Ferrall, leading the republicans of the House of Representatives and 39 democrats, in an attempt to put out of his seat a democratic member from New York whose title had been pronounced good by the highest court of his State, in order to put in a republican who had no majority, unless 16 ballots alleged to be fraudulent were counted for him, presents a strange spectacle to Virginia democrats.—Fredericksburg Free Lance.
